

There's No Place Like Hope, by Vicki Girard (2004).

This book is a cancer survival guide, written by a survivor and for survivors. It provides practical tidbits of information in easy to find categories, so the reader can find anything from tips for doctor visits to tips that foster hope. Most of all, it's a simple read that packs a huge amount of comfort and inspiration.